Other: Mission: The mission of ARTreach is to support the connection and delivery of quality arts programs led by professional artists with support from assistants and volunteers. Those we serve include children and families at risk, special needs groups and senior citizens. ARTreach connects community partners with artists to create the most positive impact on these vulnerable populations as well as the community at large.

Pt III, Line 2: Children & Families At Risk: Arts programs serving children at risk, including homeless and troubled youth, and families in transition. These arts programs are developed for social services and schools to support education through arts integration and to make learning to read, understanding math, and grasping science and history easier for students. Arts programs also support adaptive and transitional behavior, or can be used as an avenue that helps participants communicate, cope with depression or survive a crisis. Schools and social service agencies that are seeking programs that will improve self esteem, improve test scores, reduce drop-out rates, teach about healthier lifestyles, the environment, and support a better future are invited to contact ARTreach. We are combining mentoring, education and life skills with the arts. These are valuable programs ARTreach delivers to children and families at risk.

Pt III, Line 2: Community at Large ARTreach also offers quality arts programs and performances designed to engage the general community while spreading awareness of our mission. The arts support education, economic development and cultural tourism.

Pt III, Line 2: Senior Citizens ARTreach programs serving senior citizens, including the fragile elderly or individuals with Alzheimers. These arts programs are designed to improve the mental, emotional and physical state of an individual
